Refugee Rights Day: Diversity, Community, and Inclusion
According to the 1951 Refugee Convention, a refugee is someone who:

“owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality, and is unable to, or owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country.”

“All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights.”

- United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights
“A refugee’s position is somewhere between optimism and pessimism; looking forward or looking back. I choose to look forward.”

–Farooq Al-Sajee, Refugee MOSAIC, personal communication
