

YORKVILLE

U N I V E R S I T Y

Yorkville University has openings for part time faculty to teach academic English (as General Studies courses for the Bachelor of Business Administration program) at our new Campus in New Westminster opening up in October 2019. These openings are available for a Fall term start (October 2019).

About Yorkville University:

Founded in 2004, Yorkville University (YU) is a Canadian university with a national presence. With campuses in New Brunswick, Ontario and British Columbia, YU offers professional, practitioner-oriented masters and bachelor degree programs, delivered entirely online, in class or a blend of both with the aim to provide accessible programs to every qualified student. YU programs offer adult learners the flexibility needed to complete a degree while balancing other commitments by providing a supportive, highly collaborative and interactive learning community.

Job type: Part-time

Responsibilities:

- Coaching students, managing their performance and ensuring their success
- Managing discussion boards (for online courses) and in-class activities (for on-campus courses)
- Timely marking and feedback for all student submissions
- Timely response to student inquiries and comments

Qualifications:

- A minimum of master's degree in TESOL, TESL, Applied Linguistics (or a related field)
- A minimum of 3 years of teaching experience
- Full fluency in English, both spoken and written
- TESL Canada Certification (Standard 3) will be an asset

Preference given to applicants with:

- Relevant doctorate degrees in the relevant disciplines mentioned above
- Online and blended teaching experience
- Relevant university teaching and/or research experience
- Flexible availability/schedule, including teaching on weekends

To Apply: Please send your application including resume and cover letter to hr@yorkvilleu.ca and Oal@yorkvilleu.ca with the subject line 'BC Faculty – English'.

Please visit www.yorkvilleu.ca for further information.