

Call for Submissions to the BC TEAL Newsletter

The BC TEAL newsletter, TEAL News, is the platform for BC TEAL members to share their work, ideas, and innovations with a wide readership. The main goal of this publication is to shine a spotlight on work done by and for EAL teachers in British Columbia. New issues are distributed to institutions across the province and online through BC TEAL's website, with selected articles shared through BC TEAL's blog and social media outlets. The newsletter is published three times a year.

TEAL News welcomes article submissions from our members. Newsletter articles are typically 500–1000 words in length. Submitted articles will be considered for an upcoming issue of the newsletter, as space permits. For exact deadlines, please refer to the latest issue of the newsletter.

Generally, the newsletter is looking for:

- articles about your research projects,
- descriptions of classroom activities,
- anecdotes and stories about your experiences,
- book or article reviews,
- reports about talks, seminars, or conferences that you've attended,
- reflections on English language learning,
- and, any other creative work BC TEAL members should know about.

For more information, or if you have any questions or ideas for submissions you would like to share, you may contact the newsletter editor via email: editor@bctéal.org.
